What does nurturing and futuring the Dominican charism look like to your leadership team?

Leadership Response

A strong commitment to nurturing and futuring our Dominican Charism(4)

Agree to model the Dominican Charism as fueled by contemplative prayer and study

“Holy preaching” finds its strength and specificity in a community built on the Word.

Safe guard our “Common Home”

Recent chapters, conversation circles and invited speakers have all shared a common thread- the future will evolve from Mystery in its own time.

Intentional collaboration (5)

Smaller units on projects with both lay and religious

Continue networking with the Dominican Family and LCWR

Intentional congregations implanted in 10 different countries

Participating in five year study organized by the Dominican study committee

Opt for solidarity through global sharing, hospitality

Open to new forms of religious life (1)

Looking for grassroots experiences that can evolve from efforts of relating for the sake of mission

Openness for others to share in our charism (4)

Encourage education of the charism in all aspects of our life and ministry

Weaving the charism into our daily lives with new threads of opportunity.

Create occasions where Associates, Dominican volunteers, Dominican Young Adults, Boards and Ministries and other laity can join sisters to engage in the essentials of our charism.

Commit ourselves to promote hope, mercy, justice and truth for our associates and other laity functioning in leadership roles as they function in today’s fragmented world.
